SUBJECT: WRD EDUCATION FOUNDATION AD HOC COMMITTEE UPDATE

SUMMARY

The creation of the tax-exempt WRD Education Foundation will assist WRD in raising funds for the Water Education Program. The WRD Education Foundation Ad Hoc Committee is tasked with establishing the Foundation and overseeing its first orders of business.

The Foundation has filed articles of incorporation and is awaiting acceptance by the State before submitting federally. Once incorporated, the Foundation will apply for tax exemption. It is recommended that the inaugural Foundation Board is assembled and convenes a meeting to adopt the draft bylaws and elect its officers prior to applying for tax exemption with the IRS.

As such, the Ad Hoc Committee seeks to recruit the inaugural Foundation Board - a group of no less than five Board Members who will help govern the Foundation while fundraising on its behalf. The Ad Hoc Committee proposes that a recruitment letter is sent to relevant WRD stakeholders which asks that interested applicants send WRD a letter of intent and a current resume for consideration. The initial Board Members will be named as the Founding Sponsors of the Foundation.

WRD Board Members, WRD staff, and any contributing Board Member that will be exempt from the fundraising stipulation will be invited to join the Advisory Board with no voting rights.

The Ad Hoc Committee has identified key stakeholders as potential Founding Sponsors as well as drafted the recruitment letter to be sent to the named agencies and individuals. The Ad Hoc Committee seeks input from the WRD Board Directors with regards to the recruitment and nominations process.
